

Weekly Citizen

(From the Daily, March 1)

Judge Huston is securing subscribers to a new building and loan association to be known as the Albuquerque Building and Loan Association. Up to 3 p.m. he had about one hundred shares subscribed.

Mrs. Marion Graham, who has been to Chicago, purchasing a first-class stock of spring and summer millinery, has returned home and is arranging for an opening soon at her place on north Third street. While absent she visited friends in Denver.

Domingo Chaves, a practicing attorney of Barrios, a small Mexican village south of the city, was made happy this morning by his wife presenting him with a fine baby boy. The reporter has not seen Domingo, but Major Helmick states that he is around doing the honors to the boys in grand style.

Joe Goodlander, the St. Louis dray traveler, came in from the west last night. He enjoyed a month's wild fun at the McElroy fair, where he had the pleasure of meeting several of California's pretty and wealthy ladies. Mr. Goodlander brought back with him a bagful of red roses which he presented to a friend this morning.

The train which left ex-President Harrison westward yesterday morning met with a slight accident a few miles beyond Los Pinos by the breaking out of the engine house of the engine. A delay of several hours was occasioned, until the work engine camp up and pulled the train to a station where another engine was secured.

There was a rumor in circulation on this subject afternoons that L. M. Muller, the old town jeweler and bridge manufacturer, was kidnapped and held by the other night, but the head of the police had not been confirmed.

It was also stated that the robbery was committed by several members of the bullfighting company.

Secretary Cheney, of the University Board of Regents, was shortly engaged yesterday in a saving safety warranty to the teachers of this first-class educational institution. The board should have met at the office of the secretary on Wednesday, but was postponed on account of the absence of the president, Prof. M. S. Cone.

As soon as Mr. Cone returned to the city, the secretary will call a meeting of the board.

A Mexican named Riquel Gomez, was attacked by an unknown man, thought to be his wife as he was walking on Tijeras Avenue toward the old town. The assailant struck him at his head with a sling shot, but the kick fell on the right shoulder, breaking the shoulder blade and collar bone. This morning the wound was dressed by a physician, and Gomez was resting quite easily this afternoon.

Judge H. L. Warren and G. L. Brooks returned from East Las Vegas this morning. The judge informs The Citizen that Chief Justice Smith has returned to Las Vegas from Washington, and will be ready to hold the Mora county district court at the proper time. Col. Smith informed Judge Warren, that although New Mexico has been slightly injured by injudicious communications sent to eastern journals, that he has great hopes that the enabling act will pass congress this session.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrhal and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precautions of every day life." The most sensible advice is when you have got rid of it as soon as possible. By no means do not neglect it."

Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold, but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 50 cent bottles for sale by T. H. Burgess & Son, druggists.

They are at prayer.

A board of pension examiners consisting of L. D. Laferty, of Washington, D. C., chief examiner and chairman; Dr. H. B. Trust, of Washington, D. C., medical examiner; Leo Hersch of Santa Fe and Wm. Borchert of Albuquerque, interviewers, and D. C. Patron, of Washington, D. C., special examiner, has been at work in Springer during the week. The injunction made by Judge Long, of Michigan, against the commissioner of pensions, has enjoined the suspension of payment under the recent sweeping order until the pensioner is given a hearing. This board appointed for this special purpose, is now reviewing claims against which charges have been made, and also examining applicants for original or increase of pension.—Coffey County Stockman.

The Bank Wrecker.

It is a matter of record that after the collapse of the Deming and Silver City banks, Dane made an assignment of all his property in which instrument he acknowledged over his signature, as part of his indebtedness to these banks a liability of about $65,000 on thirteen notes signed by various irresponsible parties, saying, in so many words, "The last thirteen notes above mentioned are all accommodation notes, the money for which they were given having been received by C. H. Dane." And yet, in the face of this statement, duly signed and acknowledged before a notary and filed for record in the office of the county clerk, he came into court and entered a plea of "not guilty." In the same instrument he also acknowledges as his own indebtedness to the same banks, notes signed by the Indian Springs Cattle Company, M. Masterson and himself to the amount of $48,000 and his own overdraft of $20,000 due the Deming bank. Dane's whole indebtedness is put at $201,000 and assets at $27,000 and some cattle on a range in Colfax county, number unknown.

OHIO'S ALIVE

The Mexican Revolution—Chief Buying Arms and Ammunition.

As there has been a great deal of newspaper talk about the Mexican revolutionary chief, Victor L. Ochoa, and special correspondents have sent out dispatches to the effect that he was wounded and had died from his wounds. The Citizen to-day prints the translation of a letter received by Pedro Gómez de la Llana, editor La Opinión Pública, which sheds some light upon the subject. Mr. Ochoa is careful in his writing, placing dashes to indicate the town from where he writes and also to let the public draw their conclusion what he means. Here is the letter in full:

Feb. 7, 1894.

Señor Periodico de la Llana,
Albuquerque, N. M.
Dear Friend,

After talking it over myself with a little time, with the purpose in which they killed my three of my men, I ordered a retreat and that they hide themselves. When you receive this I will be at — where I am going to buy arms and ammunition with a view of — Best wishes to my loyal friends of the press who are defending our just cause, and don't become faint hearted for one minute in your noble undertaking. I am neither dead nor am I any less frightened; continue on my tracks, but I have the up the day will yet come when our cause will triumph. You already know I am not as astonished at the news of — and the revolutionary committee does, and for that reason we will not spare any time or means to come at the complete rights of the people. I have already written you in respect

What follows, apparently, you know as your brother and I.

Messrs. St. Johns and Byrne, who recently visited the mines, informed The Citizen this afternoon that they have not fully determined on starting a stage line from Wallace to the mines. Some conclusion, however, will be reached in a few days, probably before Saturday morning, at which time Mr. Byrne expects to return to the mines.

A letter received in the city gives the information that Messrs. Case and Ostrander have arrived in the district, but the letter does not convey any information as to their movements. Great things are expected from Mr. Ostrander, who recently sold his interest in several claims.

Frank Waugh, manager at Gross Blackwell & Co.'s, says that his firm is doing a good business in selling supplies to the gold-hunters. He has information that Hon. Sam Allerton, after whom the new town in the district is named, with N. K. Fairbanks and Marshall Field, is expected to visit the camp in short time. Mr. Waugh also states that owing to the snow in the district some of the prospectors have deferred locating for a short time, and are spending some of their spare moments in hunting. H. H. Karlskron, bookkeeper at the store, examined a piece of rock from the Washington mine this morning, and pronounced it very rich. The gentleman is well acquainted with mining, having had some experience back in Missouri about ten or twelve years ago.

This evening learns that the wife of Vicente L. Ochoa, who a short time ago, died, was buried in the cemetery of the old town of the district, which contained her remains. The deceased was a good citizen and his death is a sad blow to Raton.

Mrs. Laura Alexander, nee Moore, of Deming, has gone to the Mogollon country, where her husband is engaged in mining.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth, who worked on the Mule's Rest river ranch several years ago, have returned from Kansas City to take their old job.

Dr. Lorenzo, of the City of Mexico, in the way of Colfax, Neb., has located in Las Vegas for his health and for the practice of his profession.

W. S. Alexander and wife, of Chicago, who have been occupying the Essinger residence, have now taken rooms at the Plaza hotel at Las Vegas.

THE TAX PAYEE.

The following remark by the Prescott Courier may be used as an answer to an objection which is frequently heard in Albionville at present:

It is very common these days, especially about election times, to hear men object to because they either pay no taxes, or very little. Now, the principle which prompts such objections is certainly not of American birth. The accumulative propensity is by no means always the mark of a good citizen or exemplary man. On the contrary, the extreme reverse is often the case. The spiller is of an accumulative temperament, and the habit of that insect are seldom, if ever, utilized to point a moral or adorn a story. It is the non-taxpaying class which enables the tax-payers to accumulate, and become rich or fairly well off, and this same non-taxpaying class who squander all they make really pay, indirectly, more taxes than any other class of people. Of course, fitness for the position, responsibility and honor should always be selected, but who are disgruntled and dissatisfied with the manner in which the president has and is conducting the affairs of Mexico.

Frank Waugh, manager at Gross Blackwell & Co.'s, says that his firm is doing a good business in selling supplies to the gold-hunters. He has information that Hon. Sam Allerton, after whom the new town in the district is named, with N. K. Fairbanks and Marshall Field, is expected to visit the camp in short time. Mr. Waugh also states that owing to the snow in the district some of the prospectors have deferred locating for a short time, and are spending some of their spare moments in hunting. H. H. Karlskron, bookkeeper at the store, examined a piece of rock from the Washington mine this morning, and pronounced it very rich. The gentleman is well acquainted with mining, having had some experience back in Missouri about ten or twelve years ago.

This evening learns that the wife of Vicente L. Ochoa, who a short time ago, died, was buried in the cemetery of the old town of the district, which contained her remains. The deceased was a good citizen and his death is a sad blow to Raton.

Mrs. Laura Alexander, nee Moore, of Deming, has gone to the Mogollon country, where her husband is engaged in mining.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth, who worked on the Mule's Rest river ranch several years ago, have returned from Kansas City to take their old job.

Dr. Lorenzo, of the City of Mexico, in the way of Colfax, Neb., has located in Las Vegas for his health and for the practice of his profession.

W. S. Alexander and wife, of Chicago, who have been occupying the Essinger residence, have now taken rooms at the Plaza hotel at Las Vegas.

White in Arizona.

Judge Wm. Burns, deputy internal revenue collector for the territories of Arizona and New Mexico, spent two days of this week in the city on business connected with his office.

In registering Chinese under the law, two photographs of the one registering are necessary, one to go with the certificate retained by this government, and the other to be retained by the Chinaman who holds the other certificate. The two are compared when any question is raised as to whether the Chinaman is registered in this country.

The young men of Maxwell are troubled with badminton, only three out of quite a large party obtained partners to attend a social at Dr. T. P. George's ranch the other night.

Very Queer.

Are the sensations experienced by the nervous and dyspeptic, unaccountable palpitation, buzzing in the ears, flushing of one side of the face, odd taste and tingling in the mouth, constant restlessness, stinging in the gutlet and sinking in the stomach, acute sensitiveness in slight sounds that magnifies them tenfold, low spirits—these are only a few of the sensations experienced by the individual who suffers from combined nervousness and indigestion—a team that usually travel together. Their gay and festive career is, however, brought to a full stop by that greatest of stomachaches, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which also overcomes their allies—constipation and biliousness. This popular remedy fortifies those who use it against malaria, chronic rheumatism and kidney complaint, restores nervous quietude and promotes appetite, vigor and sleep.

Receiving Attention.

The irrigation volcano scheme of B. C. Robertson and Chas. Yendorf, which was published in The Citizen of yesterday, is again beginning to bear fruit. This morning Mr. Yendorf received a telegram from a certain well known gentleman up the Santa Fe road asking a letter containing full particulars of the irrigation scheme, and how many acres surrounding the volcano could be placed under cultivation. The gentleman is anxious for particular at once, as he will endeavor to secure a colony of thrifty farmers to locate in the valley near the volcano as soon as it is positively ascertained that the volcano contains permanent water.

Mr. Robertson this afternoon refused to sell Marcus Byrne and Mr. St. Johns an interest in the enterprise.

Gordon Pearce, a well known civil engineer, who has visited the spot on several occasions, states that the scheme of Messrs. Robertson and Yendorf is a feasible one, and it is a wonder to him that the matter had not been thought of before.

Leandro Gallegos Dead.

This morning at 11 o'clock Leandro Gallegos, citizen of this county and police officer of old town, died at his residence in the west end from dropsy. He had been complaining about two months, but was only confined to his bed the past ten days. He was a fine specimen of manhood, and looked well enough to have lived out the three score years and ten allotted to man. He leaves a wife and three children, a boy and two girls, besides a host of relatives and sincere friends to mourn his death. His funeral will take place at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning at the old town Catholic church, and Undertaker Strong will supervise the burial in Santa Barbara cemetery.

The Bank Wrecker.

It is a matter of record that after the collapse of the Deming and Silver City banks, Dane made an assignment of all his property in which instrument he acknowledged over his signature, as part of his indebtedness to these banks a liability of about $65,000 on thirteen notes signed by various irresponsible parties, saying, in so many words, "The last thirteen notes above mentioned are all accommodation notes, the money for which they were given having been received by C. H. Dane." And yet, in the face of this statement, duly signed and acknowledged before a notary and filed for record in the office of the county clerk, he came into court and entered a plea of "not guilty."

In the same instrument he also acknowledges as his own indebtedness to the same banks, notes signed by the Indian Springs Cattle Company, M. Masterson and himself to the amount of $48,000 and his own overdraft of $20,000 due the Deming bank.

Dane's whole indebtedness is put at $201,000 and assets at $27,000 and some cattle on a range in Colfax county, number unknown.

News.

Editorial, Colfax County News.

Editorial, Democrat.

Editorial, Democrat.